Mr J Gollop – 1) Queried Douzaine involvement in “Purple” Day, the Christmas lights switch-on and other events. 2) thought it a pity the Douzaine is not more involved in the Seafront enhancement. 3) was not aware that Mr Mooney was standing for re-election; does the Parish not make public aware of vacant places?

Mrs J Robin – gave an explanation of her involvement in Christmas shopping events.

Mr C Meinke – Profile have now been invited to attend two meetings regarding the Accessible Shopping evening.

Ms M Le Clerc – agreed with Mr Gollop that she was not aware of places on the School Committees.

Mrs C E Goodlass – explained the different means that the positions were publicised.

Mr R Matthews – 1) suggested that a prominent advert should be placed in the Guernsey Press one week before nominations close. 2) wished to raise the issue of Guernsey Electricity holding a workshop proposing the changing of their tariff system intending to increase the standing charges.

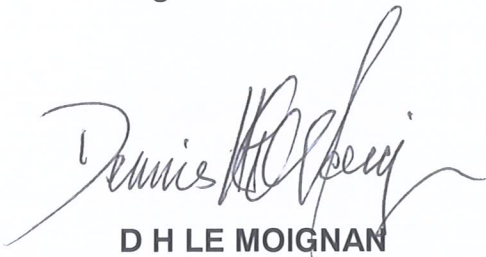

Mrs H Frattorini – noticed placement of banners on railings around the town, could banners be used to publicise Parish elections?

Mr M Henderson – could the Constables enquire about the access being closed from Notre Dame School to the Grange and also speak to Education (E S &C) about relocating St Peter Port primary schools to the Varende campus.

Mrs Z Lihou – suggested that when there are Parish vacancies, contact is made with parents via the schools.

Mr D Le Moignan – paid tribute to Mr Matthews' many years of service on the Baubigny Schools Committee.
